

Variations In Italic with Renee Alexander

This course examines the many variations of Italic. Students will discover the many choices one has at their finger tips to achieve a range of looks to accommodate most lettering projects. Italic can be as formal as Foundational or as informal as handwriting. It can be light and airy or dense and somber, flourished and ornately decorative or plain and simple. Pushed to the wildly gestural it can become abstract art.

Cowichan Exhibition Grounds, Pearmine (Mellor Hall)Meeting Room
Wednesday Nov. 8, Thursday Nov. 9, 2017 9:00- 3:30

Italic experience recommended

Fee $100 Registration to start immediately

-----Please detach and mail the form below-----

Please enroll me in “Variations in Italic” with Renee Alexander

Nov. 8 and 9, 2017 9:00 to 3:30

Fee $100 Cheques made out to Warmland Calligraphers

Name _____ Phone _____

e mail address _____

Mailing address _____

If course is full, please put my name on the waiting list ()

Mail Cheques and form to Linda Lax 5617 River Valley Road, Duncan, BC V9L 6H8

